

Every Punch You Throw

Carsie Blanton

Asus2	%	A6	%
the water comes in give me all your may you find a	through the wall, and petty spite and kinder love and	trickles down the watch me kick you leave your reason	windowpane, and when you're down, I'll at the gate, and Asus2	%	E	%
warps the wood, and change my reasons trust it like	pulls your picture every time I you can't recall what	down turn was	and and Asus2	%	A6	%
as I try to I've been looking when again you	dry it all, I for a fight and give it up	watch the flowers you've been fighting may your heart so	catch the rain, they for a frown, and gently break, and
Asus2	E	Asus2	%
kiss it once, and we will try, but may you come to	give it to the but we may never love it as it	ground learn to does	(to chorus 1)
A6	%	Asus2	%
(chorus 1) there is nothing (chorus 2) love the air that	here to do but drops the dust	watch it go to love the rain that	brings the rust, to
A6	%	Asus2	%
holding on has love the reckless	never even ruin of our	made it slow plans	it's I
A6	%	Asus2	%
merciless and like to think the	arbitrary world is just and	big and dumb and so I think the	mean and scary world is just, you
A6	%	E	%
still it dodges know I think	every punch you the	throw world is just	let it (B6) grand
A6	%	go grand

