

Next Door Neighbor Blues

Bonnie Schulkin

A	D	A	%
(The) man next door	he's gone and lost his	mind	I said the nothing so good,	he can't find something	wrong	I said there ain't all of my transgressions	but just don't see his	own	you know he sees says I tried to kill him	but lord you know that ain't	so	you know he last time I saw him	he ran out of my	sight	baby the

D	%	A	%
man next door	he's gone and lost his	mind	and the nothing so good,	he can't find something	wrong	this tragic homeowning every last one of my transgressions	but just don't see his	own	such a says I tried to kill him	but lord you know that ain't	so	every word out of that man's last time I saw him	he ran out of my	sight	you'd best run

E	D	A	%
woman next to him	well she ain't that far be-	hind.	There ain't white dude	sings a sad sad sad sad	song	He sees blind glass house owner	can't stop throwing effing	stones	He mouth	is cold as winter	snow	The run you little man	or I just might prove you	right	